

Milton B. Lindemann

June 26, 1935 - September 14, 2017

Milton B. Lindemann, age 82 years, entered rest on September 14, 2017 in San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Lindemann is preceded in death by his parents, Louis and Paula Schriewer Lindemann, previous wife, Joanne Saathoff Lindemann, son, Scott Lindemann, daughter, Betsy Lindemann and brother, Loren Lindemann. He is survived by his wife Eloise Lindemann, daughters Nancy Meyer, and Karen Grubaugh (Ken), grandchildren, Kristen Martin (Kael), Russell Owen (Kira), Kelly Grubaugh, and Keith Grubaugh, and great-grandchildren, Wesley Martin and Kloe Grubaugh, numerous cousins and many wonderful friends.

Milton worked at the Airport with Dee Howard Aircraft Company from 1954 until he retired. He always enjoyed getting up every morning and driving in to work. In the 1980's he was Director of Material Control.

Milton had a great opportunity to be there to help jump start young people's careers. He was thought of as a wonderful boss (guy to work for). One young lady said he was the kindest person. She always thought of him as her second Dad. Of course, Milton thought of her as his fourth daughter. That was Milton, he went out of his way to help all those around him. Everyone loved him.

Milton was quite the romantic. During his early years and even later in life, he sang love songs written by Neil Diamond to his wife, Eloise. Milton has always loved singing in his church choir at Oxford United Methodist Church. Milton was a member of Oxford United Methodist for 50 years. It was his life and his love. He always referred to his friends at church as his Oxford family. That phrase is coined by all of the church members today.

A memorial service celebrating his life will be held at Oxford United Methodist Church at 9739 Huebner Rd. San Antonio, Texas 78240 at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday September 30, 2017.

“ myself and several others worked with Milton the last couple of years after his retirement, over at hertz/dollar car rentals, just movin' cars around for those folks...Milton was always of good humor, kind, and gracious and even though we only knew him for a short period, on a part-time basis he will be missed....our heartfelt condolences and prayers are with his entire family at this time...jim pledger and friends
