

Minerva C. Guerrero

November 12, 1927 - November 24, 2018

Minerva Castillo Guerrero went to be with Jesus the evening of Saturday, November 24, 2018. Proud daughter to hard-working immigrants and wife to an American Army officer, she dedicated her life to serving those around her. To her final breath, she was strong, yet gentle; elegant, yet humble; and dignified, yet gracious. A former queen of the Charros, she proudly served as an administrator for Edgewood ISD until she followed her husband into his jewelry business. In retirement, she devoted herself to caring for her grandchild, and as her grandchildren grew, she gracefully transitioned into yet another new role as a prayer warrior for them as well as for many other loved ones. To the very end, her manners and sense of style were impeccable, her sense of humor delightfully dry, and her love for her children and grandchildren unconditional. All that she did was done fully and marked with her elegance and grace. Her family already misses her crispy tacos, spaghetti and meatballs, and chile rellenos (though she always insisted they were nothing special and would prefer to be remembered for her roasts), fiery yet irrefutably logical political commentaries, sharp wit, and enthusiasm cheering on the San Antonio Spurs.

Though she leaves a void, her legacy lives on.

She is preceded in death by her husband, parents, siblings, and Jonathan Chang. She is survived by her children, Rene G. Guerrero, Jr. (Cindi Chang-Guerrero) and Deborah Lizette Guerrero; granddaughter, Chanine Guo-An Guerrero; those whom she embraced into her family, Christine Chang-Simons (Daniel Simons), James Chang, Carolyn Chang, Belva Chang, Craig Chang, Deanna Chang, Joana De Sa Pereira; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Her funeral will be December 10, 2018, at St. Matthew's Catholic Church with rosary at 9:15 a.m. and mass at 10:00 a.m. Interment will follow at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery.

Contributions in her honor may be made to Operation Homefront.
