“ Our deepest condolences from The De La Garza family. Modesta and my late mother Christine De La Garza were very good friends and worked together. They were lifetime friends and I remember meeting Modesta during my teen years. She was such a sweet and funny lady. She always made my mom laugh with her jokes. I'm glad that they are now together in a better place laughing and reunited in heaven.

“ *I have so many wonderful recollections of my friend Mo. At the OAG, we spent a long time working together. Mo was a shining example of kindness, joy, and laughter. We became coworkers and friends, which makes me incredibly happy. I will cherish her remembrance forever in my heart. Mo, take it easy! Now that you don't need to use those sponge rollers :), you can let your hair down and enjoy God's Heavenly Kingdom. With gratitude, *Ro*
