“ Molly and I worked together for a few years at the Three Rivers Bar. She was always such a great and sweet friend who would go on crazy adventures with me... we would talk about anything especially her soon Cayden. She was always so very proud of him. So very happy that even her being the shy person that she was gave me the chance to become her friend. We stayed in touch and made sure we'd catch up every once in a while. I'm going to miss you Molly so much. I love you until we meet again.

We were so excited when the Carr family moved into our neighborhood when we were starting high school.... we had so many memories at their house and I remember Molly was the sweetest and cutest little girl. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
