“ To my Darling Daddy, Where do i begin, you have always been the man in my life that I could talk to and count on. You taught me so many things. There was never anything you couldn't do, from working on cars to building a barn, working on the plumbing,

“ I had the opportunity to work with Morgan for several years. I saw him again a few years ago after losing track for many years - it was a great reunion. He loved to sing and share his music. My daughter made him a tape of a hymn once so he could have back
