Thanks for the memory Cathy. Those were the days when Myron could still walk and get around. Sometimes we were shopping for ourselves and other times we might be getting some items for his mom. Thanks for your friendship. Hugs to you. Donna

“ I do have many fond memories with my Myron. He loved all Irish Music and song. Myron had a beautiful voice for singing. God truly gifted him. Myron enjoyed listening to Frank Patterson, Dennis Day, Joe Fenney, and Monsignor Michael O Callahan (at the time he was assigned To St. Gregory the Great Catholic Church. Myron also enjoyed western music. His favorite country singer was Gene Autry. Myron could sing his songs too. He also liked Johnny Bush. We enjoyed slow western dancing. One time Myron and I went midnight horseback riding at a friends ranch in Bandera Very romantic!

Myron was a very loyal and loving son. He took care of his dad when is dad was battling cancer. He also found time to take care of his mom, who had kidney disease. He took here 3 days a week for kidney dialysis for 7 years.

Myron and my mom had such fun teasing one another. Growing up Myron had a dog named Teddy. In later years after Myron and I met in 1971 -- He and I raised American Eskimo dogs together. There names were, Frosty, Stormy, Snowball, Scout, Yukon, Missy Blue, and Casper. We also had a black lab pointer mix we named traveler and part golden lab that Myron rescued named Matilda (Mattie for short)

Myron and I had some fun times and some sad times.
I truly miss you my dearest love.

Hugs,

Donna

“ In taking care of Myron at his home, he would sometimes get very low blood pressure and pass out on us while in his wheel chair. We would put him on the couch, raising his feet up, so he would come around. I knew something that irritated him a lot, so I tickled the bottom of his feet so his blood pressure raised up again. Then he'd either smile at me, or grumble. It worked! I'll cherish those moments along with others.
