

Myrtle Caldwell Ligon

January 7, 1921 - August 8, 2014

Myrtle Caldwell Ligon was born on January 7, 1921, in Saint John's, Ohio, and was called home to our Lord on August 8, 2014, in San Antonio, Texas. She was the second oldest of 11 children born to Guy Albert and Jeanne Michon Caldwell. The family moved frequently across the United States, but eventually settled in San Antonio. She graduated from Edgewood High School in 1938 and later attended Draughon's Business College. She worked for many years as a legal secretary before marrying the love of her life, Jack Ligon, in 1957. She then stayed home and became a devoted wife and mother. She was pre-deceased by her parents, her husband, and sisters Sarah Dehart, Clara Mae Cottrell and Helen Ham. She is survived by her sons Jack and wife Rosaura and Ben and wife Barbara; sisters Madeleine Anderson, Daisy Anderson and husband Fred, Pearl Scott, and Mary Wynn; brothers Tom and wife Linda, Richard, and Robert and wife Janice Caldwell; grandsons John Allen, Mark and wife Nelda, and Andrew Ligon; step-grandchildren Robbie and wife Keri Irvin, Alicia Irvin and Tommy Yates; step-great-grandchildren Jessica Irvin and Ryan Webb; and numerous nieces and nephews. She always maintained a strong Christian faith and attended Manor Baptist and Oak Hills Presbyterian churches. Her family will greatly miss her, but know she is with her Heavenly Father and Savior, Jesus Christ.
