

Nadadean Payton Holyoak

May 22, 1917 - March 26, 2016

Nadadean Payton Holyoak, age 98, passed away on March 26, 2016. Nadadean loved the Lord. She was a member of Cornerstone Church for many years before moving to the Dallas area to live for the last 16 years of her life with her son and his wife. She loved to hear Pastor Hagee preach, her Life Group, and the outstanding music and pageantry at Cornerstone. Living in Lucas, she was a member at Grace Evangelical Free Church where she attended services and Bible studies regularly with her family until her mobility made it too difficult. Nadadean will be remembered as a piano teacher to many in the Harlandale area and as a sweet, kind and generous lady to all. Nadadean was preceded in death by her parents, Winford and Maudie Payton and her husband of 50 years, Joel R. Holyoak. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Joel and Donna Holyoak, grandchildren: Jacob Holyoak, Curtis & Hilda Culver, and Cameron and Katy Culver; and great-grandchildren: Chloe Culver, Bennett Culver, and Carlisle Culver. She is at peace now that she is united with her husband and parents in Heaven.
