“ Nancy was my best friend for over 50 years. We met in Junior High. She was my maid of honor in 1972 when I married my husband. When my husband and I renewed our wedding vows 20 years later, she was my maid of honor again. I have been living in Louisiana since 1977. Whenever I would return to San Antonio to visit my family, I made a point of visiting Nancy at the same time. I will always miss her friendship and visiting with her in San Antonio. Love you Nancy. “ Nancy and I followed each other all through school. She was the oldest as she was born 2 days before me. All of our school buddies will miss her as more and more are passing. I lost touch with Nancy over the years, but I have lasting memories of her from a long time ago. Rest in peace, sweet Nancy.

“ I have known Nancy since high school. She was one of the kindest, sweetest and most genuine people I have EVER known! We recently made plans to meet for lunch and we were never able to finish those plans. She will be greatly missed by so many. My condolences to her family whom I know she loved so much. We all will miss her!
