Nancy Herrera Doyle, age 88, of San Antonio passed away peacefully after a courageous battle with Parkinson's disease this past Wednesday, August 28, 2024 in Austin, Texas.

Nancy was born on October 28, 1935 in Humacao, Puerto Rico. She attended and graduated from Central High School in San Juan. She continued her education at the University of Puerto Rico, where she received her Bachelor's Degree in Education. Nancy then spent time in the United States where she attended Iowa State University to study for her Master's Degree. Nancy took great pride in providing an ideal classroom environment for her students with whom she shared her passion for learning. Over the years, she taught in Illinois, Puerto Rico, Panama, Florida, and finally in Somerset as well as San Antonio, Texas. She was an elementary ESL teacher for thousands of students over time and was even awarded Teacher of the Year.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Richard S. Doyle, daughter, Catherine Cecilia Starck and brother-in-law Simon Figueroa. Richard and Nancy met while he was stationed in Puerto Rico with the Army. Richard's Army career led Nancy and their family to reside in many beautiful spots around the world.

Nancy is survived by her sister, Daisy Figueroa (Simon), children Donald Starck (Liudmila) and Kimberly Price (Martin). She is also survived by her grandchildren Lindsey (Aaron), Jennifer (Tim), Marley, Blake, Sophia, and Victor as well as her great-grandchildren Kennedy and Madison, along with
