

Nancy Jane H. Blumer

June 7, 1941 - July 31, 2008

Blumer

Nancy Jane Haynes Blumer was born on June 6, 1941, and passed away on July 31, 2008 in San Antonio, Texas. After a long, hard fought battle with ovarian cancer, Nancy Blumer finally found peace. Nancy was adored by so many people, and leaves behind so many broken hearts. She was married for 47 years to her best friend and husband Robert; they met when Nancy was 15 years old. Theirs was a bond like no other. She has 3 daughters, Jennifer, Lynn and Shannon; they were her absolute pride and joy. She adored her 9 grandchildren, and was certain they all hung the moon and her sons-in-law were the best men her daughters could have ever married. Her younger sister, Sue, was more like her fourth daughter; she loved and cared for "Aunt Sue" and their sisterhood was something she held so closely to her heart. She also leaves behind another younger brother and sister in Tennessee of whom she spoke so fondly. She had so many friends in her lifetime that it is hard count. We all miss her terribly, but know that she is in Heaven now; because of that it is a much brighter, warmer place. Goodbyes were always hard for us, so she always taught us to instead say, "See you later." Save us a place up there, Mommy; we will indeed see you later.
