“ Nancy was my oldest sister. She was more like my other mother. Growing up I spent two weeks every summer with her no matter where she lived. When she lived in Ft. Worth we would go to the Big D Jamboree every weekend. I loved staying with her. She would buy me Canned ravioli for breakfast. My favorite! I would go to the coast every weekend when she lived in San Antonio. We both loved the beach. When I was 16 I rode a bus for 4 days to go stay with Nancy and Marvin in Connecticut when Cindy was about 9 months old. Nancy would take me out to eat at fancy restaurants but all I ever wanted was a hamburger but she never got mad at me. She was so patient with me. She was the best big sister a girl could ever have. I've got to visit with her many times through the years and talk on the phone. I will miss her so much. I will miss her phone calls, texts, and visiting with her. We always had a lot to catch up on.
