

Nancy Ann Molesky (Fraser)

September 29, 1926 - June 29, 2022

Nancy Ann Molesky (Fraser) passed away on June 29, 2022, in San Antonio, Texas.

Nancy was born to the late Thomas Arthur and Doris (Pecore) Fraser, September 29, 1926, in Detroit, Michigan. She was the oldest and last surviving member of their family of six children. She graduated from Immaculata High School in 1944 and received a Bachelor of Arts from Marygrove College in 1948.

Nancy married the late Richard Vincent Molesky in 1957. They moved several times throughout their marriage due to his career in the United States Marine Corps. His last assignment took them to Atlanta, Georgia in 1967. She remained there, with their three children, after his passing in 1970. Nancy is survived by her daughters Cecilia and Suzy and her son Vince (Tracy). She is also survived by many nieces and nephews and their children.

Nancy moved to Key Largo, Florida in 1984. She loved the ocean and the Florida Keys. She relocated to Jupiter, Florida in 1992 and then to San Antonio, Texas in 2006.

Prior to her marriage Nancy worked as an administrative assistant with the State Department. This employment took her to Italy, where she met her husband. She loved the travel opportunities and the many friends she made during that time. She often told her children stories of her time spent in Italy. Nancy continued her love of travel throughout her life. She traveled throughout the United States, Europe, and the Holy Land. She also enjoyed taking cruises, reading about a variety of topics, and swimming. Nancy was a lifelong devout Catholic and a fervent supporter of the Right to Life movement. Funeral services will be held on July 23, 2022, at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Southfield, Michigan.
