

Naoma Cobb

January 29, 1946 - April 23, 2024

The Lord brought home his loving daughter Naoma Cobb on April 23, 2024, in San Antonio, Texas. She was born in New York City on January 29, 1946, to Charles and Olga Doss. She is preceded in passing by her parents, and her husband, John Cobb, also her brother Richard Doss. She is survived by her daughters, Dawn (Monique) Murray, Beverly Johnson, and Tamara (Paul) Simeck, her son, Keith (Vickie) Kennedy, her grandson Alex (Kylie) Estrada, her granddaughters, Kayla (Nick) Baldwin, Lauren Estrada, Mia Estrada, and Jenna Estrada, her sister Judy Burke, her nephew, Charles Doss, her brother-in-law, Jack Cobb, her sister-in-law, Marion Cobb, numerous great grandchildren, and many loved pets - Andy the Parrot in particular.

Naoma Cobb went from the big city that is New York to West Virginia where she graduated from Dunbar High School. She then found herself in San Antonio working as a hotel phone operator. She retired from Marriot Riverwalk Hotel after many years of hard work. She then filled her free time with reading, playing cards, and board games with her friends. She was an avid fan of the San Antonio Spurs and loved to watch football. She spent lots of time at church and you could often find her walking around Peacan Valley Lake.

Naoma was a loving mother and grandmother. She was very proud of all her grandchildren. She will be dearly missed.

“ Will never forget attending my brother's Elvis wedding to Na at Little White Chapel in Vegas..she became his wife and my sister in law. John was so fortunate to find a woman of faith and devotion who loved him and took care of him as his health took a downward spiral way to early. Thank you Na, may you two be reunited for eternity..Judy Cobb Willett
