

Naoma Wilcox

July 10, 1922 - December 26, 2007

Naoma Faires Wilcox passed away the same way she lived, peacefully and serenely on December 26, 2007. Born and raised in Ft. Worth she married James H. Wilcox in 1952 and moved to San Antonio. A life long member of Church of Christ, she was active in all church activities until her health declined. She leaves behind son James and wife Linda, daughter Diane Roberts and husband Hugh, and son Ronald and wife Bethany, 6 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, and sister Bettye Lou Herring. "Maw" may be gone but will never be forgotten.

Tribute Wall

HB

“ Jim & Linda: I just found out about Mrs. Wilcox. We are deeply sorry. I wish I could have gone to her funeral. She was a wonderful lady. I would visit her in the nursing home. May God grant you comfort.

Hortense Trinidad & Martha B. - December 31, 2007 at 12:00 AM

MW

“ Diane,
When I was a little girl, I used to belong to a church in our neighborhood. I don't recall the name. It has changed several times over the years. It's still located on the southside at Barranca and Koppow. I remember your mom and Mrs. Tipps te

Martha Williams - December 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

MD

“ Diane & Jimmy, Visiting your mother was the highlight of my day. She always had a beautiful smile on her face and never complained. She always remembered to ask about my mother who is also in a nursing home. It has been a joy to know Miss Naoma. Her I

Marty Davis - December 28, 2007 at 12:00 AM

CS

“ We share your grief at this tender time. Though we did not know your mother personally, she had to have been a great mother to raise a son like you, Ron. We are at a loss for words, but we know you are a faithful man. Be confident in God's promises and k

Cruse & Jimi Sue Sudduth - December 27, 2007 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ We will miss your "Maw." She was a woman of beautiful character and personality. She was always happy to see us Sunday afternoons for communion and services, and glowed when she talked about her kids and grandkids. She will be missed but remembered. L

Scott Ball - December 27, 2007 at 12:00 AM