

Nathaniel Tyler

November 7, 1927 - July 9, 2006

Nathaniel Tyler lost his short but courageous battle with cancer on July 9, 2006. He was born November 7, 1927 in Galveston, Texas to a loving father and m/other - Willie and Geneva Tyler. Nat spent 78 years on earth doing God's work helping others with great compassion. We know that Willie and Geneva have embraced their precious son once again.

Nat leaves to celebrate his life a loving wife of 49 years. Joan; 2 sisters Lillian Allen, and Thelma Stiles both of Houston; 1 son, Kendrick Ida Marie, 2 daughters, Natalie, and Eva Greg; nine grandchildren, Xavier, Bryan, Kim, Mallary, Geneva, Vincent, Dereka, Derek, and Dylan, and one great grandson, Tyler; a special daughter in heart Theresa, and numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Funeral services will be at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, July 14, 2006 at Cornerstone Church. Visitation will ha held from 9:00- 10:00 a.m. prior to service. Interment will be held at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery.

He who fears the LORD has a secure fortress, and for his children it will be a refuge. Proverbs 14:26

*Hi Nunk,
Here it is 2020 and each day I think of you or see a reminder..today it was the clock that was on 9:38.. it never fails, I stop whatever I'm doing and talk to you as if you are standing right there..
I miss you very much and you would be proud of David..he has done well.
I know I will see you again as promised but until then I will live for the both of us...*
