Natividad C. Garcia

September 30, 1929 to February 21, 2020

Natividad C. Garcia (Tiva), age 90 years 4 months, of San Antonio, Texas. She peacefully went home to be with the Lord on Friday, February 21, 2020 while surrounded by her loving family at her home of 47 years.

Natividad was born in Primera, Texas on September 30, 1929 daughter of the late Apolonio Campos and the late Gertrudis (Garza) Campos. As the youngest grandchild, her grandmother called her Tiva. As a child she attended Wilson Elementary School in Primera, Texas and in 1976, she earned her GED. Tiva worked as a field hand picking cotton alongside her siblings; later she worked at her children's school cafeteria in El Paso, Texas and enjoyed working at the local drug store in Paducah, Texas plus being a full-time wife-military wife and mother of four children.

Tiva was a faithful member of Randolph Chapel in Converse, Texas and St John Neumann in San Antonio, Texas. She enjoyed meeting her friends (Hazel, Tina and Mary) for breakfast at Whataburger on Walzem road for over 35 years. She enjoyed traveling in a car or on a plane to visit family and friends on both East and West Coast. She was an Amazing woman from spoiling her grandchildren to visiting casinos to dancing the night away with her husband nothing gave her more joy than having her family around her. Her three favorite times of the year was her anniversary, birthday and Christmas. Anniversary and Birthday always brought her inter child out; knowing her love (husband) would be giving her a freshly cut RED ROSE and a night on town. Christmas was a time for her to spoil each family member with their favorite desserts from pecan pie, fruitcake cookies, red velvet cake and her chocolate chip cookies. She loved the joy it brought each of them as her family gathered around the dinner table to pray and eat. Tiva will continue in to live in our memories and stories that we will pass along: her singing out of tune, her unique gifts but her smile, laughter and witty remarks are the ones that we will miss.

In addition to her parents, her husband Francisco R. Garcia, her two sons Francisco C. Garcia, Ruben C. Garcia and her sisters and brothers preceded her in death. Natividad (Tiva) is survived by her two daughters AnnMary Medina and her husband Francisco Medina; Francine Medina and her daughter in-law Sylvia Garcia; 6 Grandchildren; 12 Great grandchildren and 2 Greats grandchildren and 4 half siblings and several nephews and nieces. The Viewing will be held on Thursday March 5th at 6pm to 8pm with prayer at 7pm at Mission – Alamo Funeral Chapel 624 N. Alamo, San Antonio, Texas 78215.
