

Nell Fox

February 25, 1935 - July 8, 2015

Nell Fox, age 80 of San Antonio went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, July 8th. She was born Charlotte Nell Gibbs to parents Henry Lester Gibbs and Ida Belle Byrd on February 25th, 1935. She was raised in Eastland, Texas until she relocated to San Antonio in her early 20's. She continued to live in San Antonio for almost 60 years. She died as she would have wanted; at home with both of her children beside her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Jimmy Eugene Fox; her brother, Henry Gibbs; and her great grandson Jonathan Vinson.

Her survivors are her daughter, Connie Nell Fox and her husband James Embrey of San Antonio, TX; son, Jimmy Eugene Fox Jr. of Sachse, TX; grandson, Timothy James Vinson and his wife Sandra; sister Cynthia Dot Huckle and her husband Don; great grandchildren Megan Vinson and Taylor Vinson; and great-great granddaughter Eva Lue Vinson.

Nell was an employee of the Baptist Health System for 26 years. She loved to travel and had made trips to England, Italy and Greece. In her retirement she enjoyed going to the gym and socializing with her friends. She was an avid reader of books and a great lover of all animals. Mostly she loved her pets of recent years, Tootsie, Tina and Daisy. Her home and her family meant everything to her.
