

Nellie H. Clark

July 15, 1921 - November 13, 2013

Clark

Ms. Nellie Clark went to be with our Lord on November 13, 2013. Nellie was born July 15, 1921 to Hazel B. and Fred M. Hagerman in Owen County, near Spencer Indiana. She attended Braysville Elementary and Spencer High School. On July 16, 1934 she married Harold W. Montgomery. This union was Blessed with three sons, Donald Ray Montgomery, David Roger Montgomery Patsy and Jerry Wayne Montgomery Mary. During WWII she moved to Houston, Texas to seek employment and to be near her two brothers. After the war she moved to San Antonio, Texas where she met and married William J. Clark. They lived in the home where he was born and raised until his death on January 4, 2003. Nellie enjoyed Southern Gospel music, so after William passed away she traveled for several years going to concerts where her favorite quartet "The Relations Quartet" was performing. The relations Quartet helped her celebrate her 85th Birthday by giving a concert for her and 106 friends and family. She is survived by her three sons, 7 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews and one sister. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, Texas.
