

Nellie Mae Mitchell

October 22, 1910 - December 1, 2008

MITCHELL

Nellie Mae Mitchell was born near Somerset in Oak Island, Texas, on October 22, 1910, and passed away in San Antonio on December 1, 2008, at the age of 98. She was preceded in death by her parents, Hugh Clayburn Akers and Winnie Harris Akers; her brother, Emil Akers, and her husband of 42 years, Thomas O. Mitchell. She earned a degree in Elementary Education from Texas A&I in Kingsville, and taught in a career that spanned 34 years. She began her work in a twelve-grade one-room schoolhouse in Campbellton, TX, and retired from S.A.I.S.D. in 1972. She loved reading, sewing, travel and caring for her family. She is survived by her daughter, Nell Mitchell, her husband, Willy Pfannstiel, a nephew, cousins, and dear friends. The family wishes to extend their deepest appreciation to her excellent caregivers and Vitas Hospice. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Shriner's Hospital for Children, 677 Main St., Houston, Texas 77030, or the San Antonio Food Bank, 4311 Director Dr, 78219.

“ That's so sad to hear about your mom's passing. She was such a nice and pretty lady, and I'll always picture her as she was when we were in our college years.

Her last years were undoubtedly very hard, and she's gone to a better place.

I hope the
