March 7, 1928 - July 23, 2022

Neoma Kurz went to be with the Lord on July 23, 2022, at the age of 94. She was born on March 7, 1928, in Hondo, Texas to Robert and Gladys Cosgrove. She is preceded in death by her loving husband of 30 years, Carl William Kurz; her parents Robert and Gladys Cosgrove; son Donald McGuire; grandson Robbie McGuire and her brother Robert Lee Cosgrove. She is survived by her children Sharon Phillips (Johnny), Michael McGuire (Cathy), Barbara Caknupp (Charles) and Rhonda Boerner (Walt); grandchildren Becky Phillips, Johnny Phillips (Veronica), Dawn Gallia (Dale), Darren McGuire, Stephen Caknupp, Jennifer Jackson (Mark), Derek Caknupp (Blaire), Ronnie Smith (Andrea), Sherri Wright (David), Pamela Chavez (Fernando), Amanda McGuire, Tammy Canupp, Sandy McGuire, and Duane McGuire; 38 great-grandchildren; 11 great-great-grandchildren and her beloved canine companion Sandy.

Neoma loved working out in her yard, and garden. She loved farming and ranching alongside her husband Carl and enjoyed driving the tractor in the fields. They enjoyed many hunting and camping trips to Colorado with friends. She loved country music, especially George Strait. While living in the Hill Country she belonged to the Quilting Bee in Kerrville and made several beautiful quilts for family members. She was a perfectionist seamstress. In her later years she enjoyed jigsaw puzzles, and pencil coloring books. She worked at the State Chest Hospital before becoming a full-time housewife.

She was witty and fast with her comebacks, which kept us laughing. She was a devoted wife, loving mother, and grandma. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Barbara, Charles and family, we are sending prayers of comfort that God can provide. We're so glad that we were a small part of her and your lives. It is difficult to lose a loved that you've known so dearly for a long time. We're so glad to hear that the dog we found outside in the neighborhood but not belonging to anyone found a great home. Since our dog's name was Mickey, we temporarily called her Minnie. I still remember the day when we put info about the pup on Facebook, found no microchip at the Vet, Barb saw the news, came over with her Mom and we talked about coming up with a name for that pup, and I think Neoma thought the name Sandy would bother friends who had the same name. I reminded her about Little Orphan Annie and her dog's name in the comics was Sandy, and said that they were both scruffy, independent but loving dogs. Neoma just loved that story and the name Sandy became permanent. Love y'all lots Scott and "Sandy" #2 Ball

“ Ms. Neoma was one of my favorite neighbors. I enjoyed my conversations with her and she loved my dogs. One of my favorite memories is to come around the corner and seeing her going down the middle of the street in her motorized wheelchair. She wasn't a neighbor who just waived. She spent time talking with me and I appreciated that. She was a beautiful woman and I will miss seeing her out in her yard. I want to commend her family. They were a perfect example of Godly love and sacrifice. Rest in peace! Your beautiful legacy will live on!
