“ Dearest Nick, I will always remember how kind and respectful you were. You were part of our family since you were in 1st grade. You Nick and Joseph were 3 peas in a pod. I remember you and Nicks paint ball adventures. You all stayed friends all throughout high school even though you went to different schools. Now you 3 will be together again. My heartfelt condolences to your dad and all your family. Rest In Peace sweet boy.

“ Our hearts are breaking for Nicholas' dad Robert, our dear friend, over the loss of Nick. Through friendship we were blessed to have both of them in our lives, and they became part of our family. Each of our families buying homes next door to each other twice, just felt right. Nick was a smart, special, and beautiful boy. Watching Robert through those years with him, you could not only see, but feel, all the love, care, and devotion. An endless and unwavering love they had for each other. A beautiful picture in my mind of Robert carrying Nick asleep home to his bed not wanting to wake him, and he must have been 10 or 11. When we became parents later of course I understood... doesn't matter how big they get, they're yours....and never too heavy. Please accept our condolences to all of Nick's family and friends who were blessed to have Nick in their life. Our hearts go out to his wife, and his mother. May peace be found in time for everyone. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. With much love,
The Patrick Family

“ We, Major Jim Lyon, USAF, Retired and wife, Carolyn, extend our deepest and heartfelt condolences on Nick's passing. We knew Nick as a young boy when he and his devoted and loving father, Robert, were first introduced to us by our son-in-law, Michael "Shawn" Patrick and his wife, Jayme. Michael and Robert both served with pride and dedication in the U. S. Navy. When our families gathered for celebrations at the Patrick's home, and Robert and Nick lived next door, they were always welcomed to attend and it was those times we got to chat and visit with Robert and Nick always close by or at his side. Nick was always a kind and sharing child with others and his compassion for pets shined thru on occasions.

He was playful with immediate neighborhood kids and always had a good time. He and his Dad, Robert, were a loving son and father duo, and shared many happy times and memories all thru Nick's life. Our hearts break for Robert, Nick's wife, Abigail and his family and friends. May they find peace, strength, and acceptance through our Loving Father in Heaven during this most sorrowful time.

“ To Nicks family and Abby, please accept our deepest sympathy. Our family is so heartbroken to hear that Nick is no longer with us. We had just seen him days before the accident. It's been so hard for us to comprehend a young man being taken so early in life. Especially because Nick had goals to meet and places to go. He had made that known to us recently. It was amazing hearing him and my son Elliot talk about their plans for the future. Nick was so loving, kind, respectful and smart. I know he would have been successful in accomplishing all his goals. We are going miss Nick so much, but we take comfort in knowing that his memory will live on in each of us forever.

“ We are heart broken for Abby and the entire family. Me and my husband are parents of two young men that grew up with Nick and are close friends with Abby. We got the pleasure of watching a group of young kids grow together, graduate high school, go on to college, some marry some having there own children, through it all this group of boys remained close and always there for each other . Now we have seen this group of boys totally heart broken and feel a deep loss . Together some how this group will get through this together and will always have Nick in there daily life's, especially when it's time to pick fantasy football, and ufc nights .
