

Nilda Flores Garcia

April 13, 1938 - February 10, 2025

Nilda Flores Garcia joined her Lord on February 10, 2025 at her residence among family in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on April 13, 1938 in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico to Gilberto Flores and Dora Carmona. Mrs. Garcia was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Dagoberto Garcia; and her daughter, Juanina Garcia. She is survived by her sons, Jorge Garcia (Cheryl), Carlos Garcia (Rochelle) and Esteban Garcia; sisters, Norma Valenzuela (Hector) and Alma Patino; brother, Jose Flores (Concha); grandchildren, Emilio Saavedra (Patricia), Karlo Saavedra, Krystal Saavedra (Joe), Andres Saavedra and Haisel Garcia; great-grandchildren, Lacey, Iliana and Audriana. Nilda lived an exceptional, adventurous life. One could never get enough of her stories of riding in convertible cars as a teen, meeting celebrities such as John Wayne, Elizabeth Taylor and Audie Murphy. She would recall with such joy going to dances, going to the beach, meeting Dagoberto like they were yesterday. She was full of humor and loved to laugh. Ask her about her favorite episode of Andy Griffith and it was always The Pickle Story with Aunt Bee's terrible pickles. She loved her chocolates, and caramels and coffee with anything sweet. She was a fantastic cook as well. She will always be a wonderful loving, compassionate mother, grandmother and friend to all who knew her. She will forever be remembered in our hearts and prayers, happily at peace with God and family.
