“ It's funny what childhood allows you to remember. Lisa, thinking back on your mother (and father), I can picture their cozy home with glittering ceilings, a camel footrest and a bar in the tv room, tons of magnets on the fridge, and Coke served in a crystal glasses with a napkin and cookies. I remember seeing her serve my kindergarten lunch at Neil Armstrong, and when she sewed my freshman year formal band dress. But I'll never forget the best friendship between Nilda and my beloved grandmother, and the decades of love shared between both families. Nilda was an angel long before her passing, our love and prayers are with you <3

“ How many times did I spend my after school days at your house with you and your beautiful mom and dad. They were the best. Your dad frying up plantains and your mom always there beside him. She was funny, beautiful and always supportive. Prayers are with you Lisa and your family. Your mother will be forever missed. Such a special woman. Love you Lisa.

“ My dear Lisa even though it's been awhile I will always cherish the memories of spending time at your mom's house. Every time I came over she always offered the best food especially the rellanas de papas. I still have the handwritten recipe of sofrito she gave me. I never laughed so hard when she would yell at you in Spanish even though I had no clue what she was saying. There are sooo many memories. Your mom cherished you and Brian and gave her all for you. Have comfort that she is reunited with your pop. I'm so sorry for your loss and you and Brian will be in my prayers. Love ya girl!
