

Nita E Barrow

January 17, 1920 - April 27, 2015

Nita Barrow passed away in the early morning hours on Monday, April 27. She was born in Glen Rose, TX to George and Anna Bessent in 1920. The family moved to Junction, TX where she attended Junction High School and met the love of her life, the man she would marry in 1941. She is survived by her husband of 74 years, Durward H. Barrow. She is survived by her daughter, Cynthia Sanders, grandchildren, Dawn, Shea, Darcee, Tanya, Sally, Holly, Rick, and 12 great grandchildren. She will be loved and missed by all. She was preceded in death by her brother and 3 sisters, her son David K. Barrow and her grandson, Jason P. Haase. She was affectionately known to many as Bamama or Aunt Ni Ni. She had a great sense of humor and loved to make others laugh and smile. She loved the outdoors, the mountains, fishing, and knew the names of myriad flora and fauna. She recited poetry by heart, was an excellent cook and baker and made a mean venison and gravy dinner, perfect pound cake and the best agarita berry jelly in Texas. The family will receive friends at a visitation on Thursday, April 30, 2015 from 5-7 PM at Mission Park North, 3401 Cherry Ridge. A graveside service will be Friday, May 1, 2015, at 12 PM at Fischer Cemetery.
