“ I met Noe his mom, and brother Jesse at my Dad's barber shop in the early 2000's.

During the times of cutting his hair conversations about family, military, art, and life experiences were discussed.

Later after retirement from Civil service at Brooks City Base. We would hang out, go out to eat, and just chit-chat about his diet, weight lifting, wanting to stay healthy to be there for his daughter Nadia.

So many hours of discussions, laughs, concerns and prayers. Occasionally driving him to some of his appointments.

He helped me and my Dad also in driving us on medical appointments and errands.

He departure was too soon.

It was pleasure to have met you Noe.

The LORD keep you in HIS care and give peace in the hearts of your family and friends you leave behind.

Sincerely. Joe Rodriguez.

This Arturo Rodriguez. Iam going to miss our talks we had of us growing up and missing his laughter. He had a heart as big as God's kingdom. He was a overcomer, and God's word says that to the over comer he will sit at the Right of Jesus as Jesus sit at the right hand Side of the Father ..that's the promise that God has for the over comers . Love you PRIMO.
