Janette and family Ben and I truly were saddened by the passing of Noel. We know how passionate he was for the mission of the Gospel and Jesus Christ. He truly fought the good fight and his legacy will continue in his family. May the Holy Spirit of God bring you comfort and peace in Jesus name.

“ Never a dull moment with Noel. He is a fantastic brother, better friend. Noel always helped a friend never expecting anything in return. A true man's man who loved life, showed others the way to enjoyment, fulfillment and salvation by providing the very best of his leadership and opening his heart and goodness to all that would listen. Putting our god first, he practiced all he learned which made him a loving, caring husband and role model to his son Noe, daughter Stevie, grand children and his whole family. A true inspiration to the testimate on how a man should live this short life. He is missed terribly by me, his family and the countless souls he led to jesus. Although Noel is comfortably with his father jesus, I selfishly wish he were still with us. We will see you again my friend!

“ One way of knowing how good a person was, is by way of what he or she brought to the table of life!

Mr. Noel Martinez, was called home to Christ last week Tuesday January 12. Noel was a very good and kind Husband, Father, Son, Brother, Grandpa, Uncle, Cousin, Friend, my Brother in Law and last but not least, a Pastor to many! He help many who were homeless, hungry, on the wrong side of the law, but most importantly he preach the Word of God to all and brought peace to many who were suffering!

Almost 40 years ago, I gave my sister Gina, hand to Noel in marriage! He was a great husband to her. Noel also was a very good dad to his Son and Daughter and of course loved his grandchildren dearly. With his youngest grandson, Noel always had a big smile.

Noel has gone to his reward and is on the right hand of God. Us who knew him well, have another angel / ambassador in spirit, to pray for us as he taught many in and of prayer.

Concluding, hope in a small way I was able to articulate to his family and friends of the kind of person Noel was. I know he brought much to a table of life that needed love, understanding, friendship and hope.

We all know we will meet again in the Lord's home. r

“ My condolences to Gina, the Martinez family & the Metanoya family. When I walked thru the doors in the small church on the south side you said expect a miracle & indeed I did. You are an inspiration in my life, and to others you never gave up on me, and thru your teachings my life was changed. I I still remember when I wouldn't do my homework for bible study & you made me write 100 times I will do my homework. Lol You taught me so much & will never forget you. A true man of God you have earned your wings. You are now home. Pastor Noel.

“ Our deepest condolences to Jeannette, Noe, Stevie Jo and all of Noel's beautiful grandchildren. My favorite memory of Noel was watching him play baseball when we were kids.
