“ My sister-in-law was a quiet and humble person, she was always very nice to me and when I was younger I would call her to have some girl chats with her and she was a good listener and always gave me guidance, since I had no actual sister those moments were special to me. She also was always willing to help me and do for me.. I love her and she will always be special to me in my heart. I will truly miss her..

My deepest condolences and prayers go out to Robert and the rest of the family and friends who knew Naomi. She was my dear cousin who I grew up with. We graduated the same year and were also in one of the classes at Fox Tech. She was a beautiful person both inside and outside, and her smile was infectious. Although our hearts are heavy, there is comfort and peace knowing that she is now in heaven walking the streets of gold along with her mom, dad, and sister. She has left behind priceless memories of her life. And we also have God's promise of seeing her again. ❤️🙏🙏🙏.
