“ When we recently found out about Nora's passing, we were saddened, shocked and in disbelief. We first met Nora when she was dating David. We were so thrilled when Nora and David came by to visit sometime after their return to San Antonio from Pennsylvania. Nora was a sweet and kind soul and she is dearly missed.

“ Just saw Nora's passing. I feel like I've lost a sister. She is a sister ... in Christ and His love. Because of Him it is only temporary. She was such a blessing to me and my family as she helped with mother's care in 1999 near Reading, Pa. Though we live far apart and haven't seen each others in years, I always enjoyed her posts and remembering her sweet disposition, beautiful smile, and loving heart.

Jack and I are very sorry for your loss.

“ We will always remember sweet Nora Sue and love all of the Boyle Family. May God hold each one in His loving arms and grant you peace. Knowing we will see her again on Heaven's Shore. Maybe she has met up with our Ricky, and they are reminiscing about the old days. We love you, Bertie Lee.

“ I was a childhood friend of Nora Sue's mother, and remember Nora Sue as a beloved child. As an adult, I've gotten reacquainted with Nora Sue on Facebook. This I know...she was a sweet, compassionate person who loved the Lord and her family with all her might. My heart is sad for my dear Berta Lee and Nora Sue's husband, son and daughter. I pray that knowing she is free of pain and with her Savior will give comfort to the family. lovingly, Randy Sue

“ Heaven must've needed an 😇 Nora was always ready to drop everything and lend a hand if anyone needed help with anything. Loved Dave and the kids to pieces. Was a doting grandma and spoiled the kids rotten whenever she could. A truly beautiful woman inside and out. Her smile lit up a room and I can hear her laughing now in my heart. I was privileged to call her my friend and know she is in a better place. Rest in piece, Nora, we will 😘 miss you!

“ Somewhere over the rainbow
Way up high
There's a land that I heard of
Once in a lullaby
Somewhere over the rainbow
Bluebirds fly
Birds fly over the rainbow
Why, then, oh why can't I?

*Fly my friend, Fly!
I love you Nora.
Till we meet again ❤️*

“ My mother was so beautiful. She had a smile that lighted up a room. She loved her grandchildren and they were so important to her. She always carried pictures of all of them where ever she went. We talked everyday and video chatted. She sent me letters and cards in the mail. And special packages that I will forever hold dear to me. I love you mama!
