

Nora Jeanne Franklin

May 24, 1942 - January 1, 2008

Nora Jeanne "Jeannie" Franklin, born in Austin, Texas on May 24, 1942, passed away peacefully in her sleep on January 1, 2008. Jeannie was preceded in death by her father, Eugene Garrett Williams, and her mother, Eva Cheatham Williams. She is survived by her sister, Donna Williams Mayo and her husband, Charles Mayo; her sons, Garrett Wayne Schwarz and his wife, Marie Schwarz, their daughters Andi and Alex and Darren Scott Schwarz and his wife Laura Cardenas Schwarz, and their children Kira, Dylan, and Mitchell; her niece, Shauna Jeanne Cardenas and husband Michael, their daughters Jeanne Camille and Marcella; and her dear, life long friend, Betty Sue Nichols. Jeannie was a lover of life, of music, of family and friends. She attended Edison High School, and was a faithful fan of Elvis Presley, attending his concerts, and even meeting him in person. She always enjoyed family gatherings, loved her pets with a passion, and was fondly known as one who could pull off practical jokes with panache! Nora Jeanne brought liveliness to any setting. She will be warmly remembered and deeply missed.

Tribute Wall

KB

“ I HOPE ALL OF THE ANGELS IN HEAVEN FIND THIS SAD
LOVING SOUL & INSURE THOSE OF US WHO KNOW, WORRY,
AND CARE ABOUT HER, THAT HER SUFFERRING &
LONELINESS WILL CONTINUE NO MORE,

AND TO HER CLOSE FAMILY PLEASE KNOW THAT THOSE OF US WHO MET JEANNE NEW SOME

Keith Boehme - January 04, 2008 at 12:00 AM