She was born on March 3, 1940 in Gonzalez, Texas to Salvador and Leonor (Silva) Gonzalez. She was met in heaven by her husband, Albert Sanchez Jr, sister, Gloria Principe, and brother, Brandon Navarro.

Nora leaves behind to cherish her memory her daughters, Leonora Garcia, Rhonda Salinas, and Rochiel Sanchez; son, Danny Sanchez and his wife Norma; grandchildren, Angel Sanchez, Crystal Boubel, Celestina Garcia, Henry Perales, Roy and Paul Calvillo, and Brian Dailey; great-grandchildren, Damien Boubel, Henry Perales, Jr., Isabella Sanchez and Roy Garcia; numerous other loving family members and friends.

She was a loving caregiver to all, including friends of her children and grandchildren. Of course, we cannot remember Nora without mentioning her love for her dogs, art, and bloody mary's. “ I would like to begin with my sincere condolences to all the family and the dear friends of Mrs. Nora Sanchez, Mom of my longtime friend Danny Sanchez. I lived about a block and a half away from the Sanchez household. I would run into Danny to catch the bus to go to Jeff Davis Middle School. We started talking and shortly became friends. One day he says to me, "Why don't you drop by my house and check out the new stereo my Mom and Dad bought me." I believe it may have been a Christmas gift because it was winter time. Shortly, that same day I met his mom Nora, we both smiled and said, "Hello!" From that point it was like having a new friend enter my life, it was mutual respect for each other. One can tell when one appreciates the other's company, simply by talking about all kinds of issues, sharing ideas and thoughts and an occasional good laugh. Most of all I would like to say that Nora along with her husband Albert and their son Danny have always made me feel welcomed at their homes. God bless you Nora, and may you rest in eternal peace.
