

Norma Jean Burd

February 5, 1931 - March 8, 2015

There is a new star shining bright in the sky at night that radiates and will sparkle in our lives forever. Norma Jean Rudolph Burd was born on February 5, 1931 in Bowling Green, Ohio. She entered into the Kingdom of God on March 8, 2015 and is at peace now. She is preceded in death by her husband, Richard G. Burd; parents Edgar and Mildred Rudolph; brother-in-law James Burd; other relatives and close friends. Norma was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She was a friend to many and could be counted on for her help, strength, determination, guidance and wisdom. She resided in San Antonio for over 50 years. Norma did volunteer work with the Red Cross, Saint Andrews Episcopal Church, local schools and the local Community Center over the years. She is survived by her sister, Carol Dewalt and her six children and their spouses: Alexandra Martin; James and Velma Burd; Elaine and Kenneth LaRue; Jeffry Burd; Cynthia and Gregory Turner and Karen and Roger Peles. Norma is also survived by her 12 Grandchildren and their spouses: Faith Reber; Brandon Martin; Vanessa Turner; Brittany Hegedus; Christopher and Jennifer Burd; David and Sarah Burd; Aaron Burd; Rebekah Burd; Kristopher LaRue; Lauren LaRue; Zachory LaRue and Sara Reyes. She also has five great Grandchildren: Wesley Hegedus; Cameron Burd and Zoe Burd; Amethyst Reber and Obsidian Reber. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting a donation to the Animal Defense League, Saint Andrews Episcopal Church, the American Heart Society or an organization which assists people of your choice. Be kind, speak gently, believe and keep wising on a STAR!
