“ My deepest condolences to Lupe, Nayomi, and family.

Norma has completed her race. She is now joined in heaven with her son Francisco and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Norma was a Proverbs 31 woman. She supported her husband at work to make sure he was successful. She supported her husband at church while he served tirelessly for 20 years. Together, they served at Metanoya Church in various capacities such as the Singles ministry, the office, Missionettes, and Children's Church which included countless festivals, fundraisers, VBS, Halloween events, monthly meetings and fellowships.

Norma and Lupe both attended Advanced Bible Studies and Leadership Training classes as long as I could remember. They always stood ready to meet the needs of our church, sacrificing personal time, family time, and vacation time. It's not easy running your own business and caring for the church's business as much as your own but Norma did just that.

Back in the day, before Pinterest or even high speed internet, we used to go to God for craft ideas. Norma inspired me with her ideas to decorate for the singles ministry and taught me how to go to God for decoration and craft ideas. She would say look what the Lord gave me and she would show me her decorations and crafts. She also made some awesome posters for the children which I have kept to this day. I used many of her posters for "training" purposes because of how awesome they were. She went above and beyond what was required in many things.

She depended on God to do all these things and in her illness she proved the Holy Spirit was in control. She overcame many difficulties, and suffered physically from cancer, but pressed on living as though nothing was wrong. She always wore the most radiant smile and I'm glad I told her how beautiful she looked. She quickly shot back the compliment, once again evidence of someone walking in step with Holy Spirit. I was so sad when I heard that she has passed away because I kept promising that we would get together soon for lunch one day. Some of my fondest memories of Norma were when we went out for lunch with our husbands. I always felt like she was a great friend because that is how she made everyone feel. She treated everyone like her friend. I will miss my sister-in-Christ because there was no one like her. She was a very special person that loved the Lord so deeply that even though she lost her son in his youth she never stopped loving God. She would always remind me about the Lord through her post on FB and many times I was reminded of how much she missed Frisco. It's a hard thing to lose a child so young. She has been more than an Overcomer. She is a beacon of light, hope, and love. I hope everyone can appreciate my dear friend and sister more by this message.

“ Lupe And All who mourn Norma's passing, Norma was an amazing Woman and We are All Blessed to have crossed her path along this earthly journey. I had the great pleasure to meet Norma & Lupe many years ago. When you would talk with her, she made you feel like you were the only person that mattered at that moment. We are sad she is gone, But we all know that she is Free of Pain and happy to be back with the loved ones gone before her. Lupe, Please know my heart breaks for you as you now are on a whole new journey with out your Babe. Norma completed YOU and YOU completed HER. Treasure the Many wonderful sweet memories in the next days and months ahead and know she is now your sweet Angel in heaven.

“ I would like to PRAISE Almighty for coming into our lives 27 years ago by the blood that Jesus Christ shed on the cross of calvary my wife so loved the LORD she served at the church office for many years I remember she told about a conversation she had with mama Ninfa about me she told mama Ninfa that I wasn't saved because I didn't act like it mama Ninfa asked her what did I say I said I was saved Ninfa told her that I was because it's by faith that we are saved and she shouldn't give up that she was going to be the tool that God was going to use to bring me in well here I am my wife was hard on some times but I thank God for keeping her focus on Jesus she been sick for 5 years she suffered a lot she stopped walking about 2 months ago I thank God for this time we would pray and I would tell her how much she taught me through the years and how grateful and proud I was of her and how much she taught me to love her and everyone I miss her so much but GOD is my comforter it helps me to cope with my feelings because she's in God's presence she's not suffering anymore I could say a lot more but GOD knows how I feel see you soon baby PRAISE GOD Almighty hallelujah God is so good all the time

“Sadly yesterday my beloved neighbor(Norma) of almost 40 years passed away from a long bout with cancer... 😞 she was always a fantastic neighbor keeping watch on our homes and could always be seen working on her yard and plants, keeping her lawn immaculately manicured... My heart goes out to Lupe, Rene, Abel and Naomi in the loss of your wife and mother. Always remember all she did for you all and her grandkids... I will miss seeing and talking to her outside in the front yard! 😞 Rest in peace now my dear friend 🙏

“Sadly yesterday my beloved neighbor (Norma)of almost 40 years passed away after a long bout with cancer! She was a fantastic neighbor always keeping watch on our homes, and could always be seen working on her yard and plants, keeping her yard very well manicured... My heart goes out to Lupe, Rene, Abel and Naomi, In the loss of your wife and mother! Always remember everything she did for you all, and her grandkids...and have the comfort knowing she is not suffering any more from her illness! 😞 I will miss not seeing and talking to her any more in the front yard! May she rest in peace now 🙏
