“ This post and memory goes way back to around 1953. My mother and I lived in a house on Monticello Court in San Antonio. We lived in the back half of the house, and my mother rented out the front half to Norma. I was a young child, but I have nothing but pleasant memories of the time Norma lived with us. She was just always very warm and friendly toward my mother and me. I don't remember how long she lived with us, but she moved when she married her husband, Lois. I do remember that they bought a new 1955(?) black and pink Ford. Were they ever proud of that car! Norma and Lois were friends with my mother for years, My hope is this childhood memory will put a smile on the face of whoever may read it.

“ Norma was a good friend and will be missed. I will never forget the "family" trips we took to Canada and New Orleans. The Chiasson's opened their hearts to everyone they meet. I always felt like family not just a neighbor.

“ Their Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of them as gone away,
their journey has just begun.
Life holds so many facets,
this earth is only one.*

*Just think of them as resting from the sorrows and the tears,
in a place of warmth and comfort,
