NORMA LINDA A. GONZALEZ

December 26, 1964 – January 12, 2021

It is with great sadness and a heavy heart that our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend entered eternal life on January 12, 2021 at the young age of 56.

Norma was one of six children born to Matilde and Elena Alcoser on December 26, 1964 in San Antonio, Texas. She was preceded in death by her parents, Matilde and Elena Alcoser and sisters, Aurora Navarro and Elena Santos.

She is survived by her loving husband, Hilario (Lalo) Gonzalez Puente; children: Jennifer Morales, Michael Morales, and Andrea Gonzalez; two grandchildren, Aubrey and Josiah Aguilar; sisters Irma Cruz (Thomas) and Lydia Alcoser (Alex); brother, Ray Alcoser; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family and friends.

Norma's greatest accomplishment in life was her love of family. Her children and grandchildren meant the world to her. She was the type of person who would help you no matter the sacrifice...she'd be there to lend a listening ear, run errands, offer babysitting services for family members, or just be there for you to offer friendship, conversation, or advice. Norma's caring and compassionate heart will never be forgotten and will live on in us forever.

“ My condolences to the family. Norma was a loving person that left this earth way too soon. As I reflect on my interactions with Norma, all I can say is that she was full of love.

Norma loved to find solutions; she would say something or ask questions that either solved a problem or guided you to find a solution to a problem. Nothing was ever too big of a problem for her.

Norma spoke candidly because she really cared. Sometimes when she would say something that was a little to candid, she could quickly read your body language or facial expression and then make it a funny moment. I really loved that about her!

Although we did not speak often, I can say that whenever I would call on her, she make me feel like I was her number one priority, always!

Until we meet again, have a safe journey to heaven and let everyone know how much we miss them.

*Love,
Belinda Guerrero*

“ Sister...you left us way too soon! You don't know how many times I've reached for my phone to call you just to chat or see how everyone's doing. We talked almost everyday and I miss you so much! You touched our lives and hearts in so many ways that we'll never forget you. I pray you will soon unite with Papa, Mama, Aurora, Elena, Alex, Anthony, and Lalo. Tell them we miss them all. Love you forever! Irma
