

Norma Leticia Jimenez

August 3, 1956 - February 18, 2021

It is with great sadness and a heavy heart that our beloved mother, sister, grandmother, great grandmother and friend Norma L. Jimenez entered eternal rest on February 18, 2021 at the age of 64. Norma was born on August 3, 1956 in San Antonio, Texas to Manuel C. Sandoval and Carmen Menchaca Flores.

She is preceded in death by her parents; sister Irma Galvan; and grandson, Rojiero De Luna, Jr. She is survived by her daughter Melissa Martinez-De Luna; son, Adam Jimenez; sisters, Rosalinda Chavera and Martha A. Sandoval; granddaughter, Clarissa Marie De Luna; great grandson Jacob Dominic Leon; numerous other loving family members and friends.

Norma was a devoted servant of God. Her trust and faith in Jesus Christ served as an inspiration to us all. Through seven years of dialysis treatment her commitment never wavered. She loved to be of service to those around her. Never more than a phone call or text away. She was extremely selfless in all she did. She didn't practice a life of to have and to hold rather to give and serve. My mom left big shoes to fill, however I will try my very best, after all that is what she expects. Rest easy mom, I've got it from here, I will keep the family close and taken care of. My mom was beautiful, kind, strong willed, independent, devoted, trustworthy, compassionate, resilient, generous and her presence will be forever missed... Melissa

Hey mamma it's me. There are no words that can properly express or convey what you mean to me. Your perseverance and strength through ups and downs was unparalleled and is a true inspiration for us all. I love you with all my heart!!! I know you would be upset with me if all I did was lay around crying for you. I promise you that I will try my absolute best to continue to make you proud. I am blessed for the time we had together although I wish it had been longer. I am truly honored to be your son, please watch over and guide me. I love you mamma and can't wait to see you again.... Love Adam

“ I had the honor of meeting you only a handful of times over the years and each time you always made me feel so loved like I was your very own family. You gifted me with my very first personalized Bible before I left for deployment. Words can't express what that meant to me. Thank you, I will cherish those moments in your presence always. Your beautiful soul, kindness, generosity, and fierce love for your family and God will forever be remembered. Norma, you will truly be missed.

“ My friend for 20 years. Always laughing. She loved her children, grandchildren and great grandchild, dearly. When Sunday morning came around she did her best to be at the church assembly, even when she had great pain from all her illnesses. She amazed me at her strong will to serve the Lord while enduring great physical pain. I miss sitting with her on Sunday mornings at church. I miss our conversations. Norma was loved by many people. She is at peace now and no more pain. I will forever remember and miss my friend.

She is headstrong, independent, relentless. She loved her kids more than anything in this world. A true Christian whose faith never wavered as her health deteriorated. In spite of the pain she often experienced, she had compassion for others when they hurt. She is a child of Jesus Christ and believed passionately in his promise of everlasting life for those that believe in him. She is a role model for those of us who seek a relationship with Jesus.
