“ We appreciated our business relationship with Norman , he was always available for his clients . But more importantly we valued our friendship with Norman. We spent many hours talking about our families, our interests and what was important to us. We enjoyed several dinners with Norman and June. Sending our sincere condolences to the entire family. He was a good, kind man and will be missed.

“ Thank you, Norm, for being a wonderful neighbor! We will miss the driveway conversations. Your love of family was evident and heart warming, as was your love for little furry creatures. With sincere gratitude for your life...
