“ Mr. Whisler was a very sweet, kind hearted man. Although I did not get to see him often, he always seemed to enjoy the time we all spent together. It was obvious that his family was very important to him!! He will be missed but he will never be forgotten.

“ As step-grandchildren who live out of State in South Carolina, we only had the pleasure of meeting Norval on one occasion. Though only a single, brief encounter at his home, we gleaned that he was a warm, loving man who cared deeply about his family.

“ Dear Mary, "Mom" and all your family.

Don't have the "right" words to say how sorry I am in your loss. I regret I did not know your Dad and husband, but felt that he must have been a fine man.

My thoughts and prayers have and will be with you.

“ I go back to High School with Norval, but the fondest memories are of the many dinners, discussions, and laughs our families shared back in the Kansas City days. We share your loss but, I'm sure, we can only begin to feel your pain. Thinking of you. . .
