

Nova M. Trevino

January 6, 1929 - January 30, 2016

Nova M. Trevino, born January 6, 1929, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, January 30, 2016 at the age of 87. Mrs. Trevino was born in Monroe, Michigan and lived most of her life in San Antonio. Nova taught kindergarten at King's Academy for many years and was a beloved teacher. She loved her kids and they loved their "Sister Nova." She retired from teaching a year after her first grandchild was born in 1985 to devote more time to being a "Mimi." She also taught Sunday School for many years at International Bible Church until her health forced her to quit. Being a mother and grandmother gave her the greatest joy here on earth and she loved surprising us with little gifts. Her life was characterized by her endless giving and selfless love to her family and all she met. Her daughter Heather Jo Trevino and sons Ric Martin and Sonny Martin preceded her in death. Survivors include her loving husband of 61 years Gus G. Trevino; daughter and son in law Candee and E. Palmer Emswiler; son Rob Trevino; grandchildren: Heather Robert Sabine, Laurel Martin Kail, Summer Emswiler, Chris Trevino and Jon Trevino; great grandchildren Tiernee and Declan; numerous nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

BO

“ Robert lit a candle in memory of Nova M. Trevino

Robert - January 12 at 12:26 PM