“ I met Mrs. Olga through her son, JT, a couple of years ago. I'm sad to say I don't know her as well as others but the few encounters we've had, I can tell you she was truly so genuine and kind. Meeting her for the first time didn't feel like when you typically meet an acquaintance.. she was definitely the kind of person that made you feel so welcome like you had known her all your life! Conversation came so easy when talking with her and I could tell just how much she loved her family! I feel so grateful that I was able to meet her before she left this earth. And to her family, I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. I pray you all take heart in knowing that she is in a much much better place than this!□

“ Olga never met a stranger. From the moment we moved to College Station in 2013, she welcomed us with open arms and made us feel like family. Her kindness, generosity, and caring spirit touched everyone who knew her. We will always cherish the love and friendship she shared so freely. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
