

Olga Dovalina Martinez

January 2, 2015

Olga Dovalina Martinez went to be with the Lord on Friday, January 2, 2015. She was born in Laredo, Texas to Juan B. and Julia Salinas Dovalina. Mrs. Martinez was preceded in death by her husband of 51 years, Andres Martinez and her sons, Juan Andres Martinez and Marcus Alan Martinez. Mrs. Martinez was a strong woman of faith, loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Olga was a charismatic, loving person who was selfless and enjoyed her family. She had a strong Catholic faith; was active at St. Matthew's Church as a Eucharistic Minister and would bring Communion to those residents who could not attend Mass. She also served on the Adoration Prayer Group and was devoted to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Olga received her Theology Degree from the Oblate School of Theology and served as a role model to her grandchildren in pursuing their education and spirituality. In her earlier years, she realized her creative abilities which carried on further in her life and enabled her to provide the Church with homemade crosses and rosaries. In addition to her home contributions to the church, she also enjoyed gardening and her family remembers the wonderful meals she prepared. Olga was involved in a neighborhood ladies group called the "Divas". She will be remembered by her family for her infamously warm response of "love you more". She is survived by her Children, Oscar Martinez Sharon, Hector Martinez, Olga Nydia Martinez, Art Martinez Grace, Vincent Martinez Debbie; Grandchildren, Angela Freddy, Andy Monica, Bridget Derek and Stryder, Ruben, John and Clarissa, Eric Arielle and Jason Anita, Marcus and Sarah, Vincent II Cassie and Derek Erendira; Great Grandchildren, Rachel, Cassidy, Emily, Jack, Rueben Andrew, Crystys, Andrew, Lauren, Xavier, Rozlyn, Valerie, Quinn and Angelina.
