Olga Ytuarte Zamudio

July 28, 1940 - July 21, 2019

It was in a quiet moment, just past midnight, that Olga Ytuarte Zamudio's spirit was released from her body and called home to Our Heavenly Father. She passed in peace and grace surrounded by her immediate family and is now rejoicing with her former loved ones who welcomed her with open arms. She is preceded in death by her father and mother Juvencio & Leandra Ytuarte; sisters, Alicia Olivarez, Elvira Oviedo, Irene Mendez; brother Arturo Ytuarte. As a young woman, she was determined to give her daughters a better life full of opportunities, which she accomplished through her determination, tenacity, unconditional love, strength, and relentless courage. She found joy in being surrounded by her family for every holiday, birthday, and Sunday in the company of pan de dulce, barbacoa tacos, and Coke.

She was always there for her family members, friends, and neighbors. From being the "BOSS" lady to babysitting the 5 grandkids, having dinner ready for her late husband Trinidad Zamudio. She was always there, which made her so dearly loved, respected and admired by all who knew her. Though much is taken, much abides; the life lessons, the wisdom, the strength, and the confidence in knowing that where there is a will there is always a way.

Olga is survived by her 3 daughters, Fernanda Garza Lugo, Jo Ann Lopez, Annabelle Jenkins, and spouse Richard Jenkins; brother Ruben Ytuarte, sisters Aurora & Jovita Ytuarte, and grandchildren; Vivianna, Jacqueline, Nicholaus, Dorian, Joe Matthew; great-grandchild, David Anthony. We'd like to invite all to come and celebrate her life well lived.

“ Olga was a strong and loving mother to her family. She raised three wonderful daughters and leaves her legacy with each of them. She was a special woman who I will remember the rest of my life and will be missed by all. My sympathies to her family at this sad time. God Bless you all . May she Rest In Peace with our Heavenly Father.
