

Olivia V. Gonzales

March 5, 1933 - October 28, 2022

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Grandma, you were always a light for me whenever I felt I was in the darkness & I always loved being able to talk with you about anything plus do all I could for you because you always looked after me just like mom did. It hurt me so badly that I made such a foolish mistake believing that the idiot would have taken great care of you & I blame myself for messing up. I love you grandma & at least you are in a safer plus better place now, we already know what will happen to the one who betrayed you and the rest of the family so don't worry yourself but please help guide me to a better future.

Love Always, Juan Doming Cigarroa

Juan Cigarroa - January 18, 2023 at 04:29 PM

FB

Juan our deepest condolences on your grandma's passing. Live how your grandma taught you.. take care of your mom. BUT keep this in mind , we as part of your family did not betray you, we loved your grandma , our Tia!!!

Frieda Belton - January 22, 2023 at 02:58 PM

FB

“ Tia I will always treasure the beautiful memories of spending time with you , the times you'd lent me a semi formal dress or trimmed my hair . These past few years have been very sad not being able to get in touch with you , not knowing whether you were well or even remembered me. Know Tia that you were never forgotten , everybody asked for you. I wish that even in death we could have said goodbye , to see you one last time but as we heard the family was prohibited from attending any service 😞. I know you are in a happy place with Grannie, Tia Nicha, Tio Chuy, Tio Chepe, mom & my dad , J J , Steven & Gene. I will always love you☐

Frieda Belton - January 06, 2023 at 08:00 PM

“ So sad to hear of Olivia,s passing. She was my mentor when I started with Home Interiors and Gifts. She was a very talented and creative person and knew how to promote her merchandise. She was always very classy and professional. I learned a lot from her that has stayed with me after all this years. My prayers are with her family and may she rest in peace.

Becky Stuart

Rebecca Stuart - December 03, 2022 at 08:16 PM