

Olivia G. Martinez

November 11, 1934 - May 24, 2017

Born to Francisco and Trinidad Garcia on November 11th, 1934 in Karnes City, Texas, Olivia Garcia Martinez was the devoted wife of her surviving husband, Adolfo Martinez Sr. They lovingly celebrated 63 years of marriage and made a humble but successful life together in San Antonio, Texas. She was the mother of six strong and independent children. She will be reunited and embraced in Heaven by her eldest daughter Ida Marie Ybarra and leaves on Earth her only son Adolf Martinez, Jr, her beautiful daughters, Deborah Martinez, Diana Martinez Tovar, Delma Martinez and Michelle Martinez Cervantes, her forever baby.

Olivia entered eternal life on Wednesday, May 24, 2017. Along with her husband and children, her spirit is carried on by her 4 surviving siblings, Abel Garcia, Avelia Salinas, Gloria Verhine, Frank Garcia, Jr and Rene Garcia; her 2 siblings in Heaven, Lupe Franco and Taurino Garcia; her 2 sons by marriage, Raymond Tovar and Pete Cervantes; her only daughter by marriage; Vivian Martinez; her 14 grandchildren, Adam and Deseri Ybarra, John and Stephanie Cruz, Adolf Martinez, III and Maricela Guerra, Adrian and Tanya Arroyo, Jeffrey and Kelly Benavidez, Christina Tovar, Jonlivia Martinez, Matthew Martinez, Pete Ryan Cervantes; her 5 great-grandchildren Tristen Martinez, AJ Ortiz, Jeric Ortiz, Jeffrey Benavidez and Avery Laine Cruz; and an extended family of relations and friends that stretches all over Texas.

Family and friends may visit with Olivia's family at Mission Park Chapel South on Monday, May 29, from 5 until 9 PM with a Rosary service beginning at 7PM. Mass of the Catholic Burial will be celebrated at St. Lawrence Catholic Church, May 30 at 11 AM. In honor and support of Alzheimer's Disease Awareness, we wear the color purple as we say our final goodbye to our beloved Olivia.

“ Aunt Olivia was a wonderful loving lady full of kindness and laughter. I am married to her nephew but she never treated different. As s matter of fact she would always would say I was one of her favorite nieces. We saw her the Friday before her passing and she recognized me and we talked. It was great seeing her but in my heart I knew it wouldn't be long. Her family has a lot of beautiful memories, may they stay in their hearts forever. Praying for peace. RIP my lovely Aunt Olivia.

Tia Olivia was a wonderful and caring individual. I will always remember her laughter. I have wonderful memories of the family gatherings with her and Tio Adolfo and my cousins. She is home with her beloved Ida. May all the special memories with your wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother carry you through this difficult time.

*Love,
