Upon graduating from high school, she moved to San Antonio and received a diploma in Medical Assistant Clinical from San Antonio College. Olivia worked many years in the oncology and radiology field of work.

She was a talented seamstress and sewed beautiful clothing for herself and her children throughout her life, but her true passion was tending to her garden with the help of her grandchildren.

Olivia enjoyed her grandchildren, Jared, Ephraim, and Priscilla. She cared for them until they entered school. She sewed Halloween costumes, attended school events and spent wonderful years with them taking them to McDonald's.

Olivia was a caring and strong mother, grandmother, and sister. She selflessly gave of herself. Her legacy and compassion will live on in the lives of her children and grandchildren. She passed away peacefully in the presence of her daughter and granddaughter by her side. She will surely be missed.
