“ I will always cherish all of the precious memories I have of Mom Stewart. She opened her arms and her heart to me and I am a better person for having known her. She was a true example of what it means to be like Jesus. She would give someone the shirt off her back if she thought they needed it, not questioning their motives or if they really did need it. What’s more, she never made a big deal about it, or acted like she was doing anything special. It was just who she was. She has been a true inspiration to me for the beautiful 26 years I have known her and loved her. I will miss her dearly.
