“ My sincere condolences to Lloyd and all Oralee’s blood family and her Morningside family. When my Dad was there late Dec. 2019 until late April 2020 it renewed my friendship with this remarkable and inspiring woman. I had first met her in the early ‘80’s when I started selling Avon and had to go to her house. Because she was across the hall from my Dad, Manuel, I would see her durn near every time I visited 7 days a week. Her positive and friendly nature were benefits to staff, her fellow residents and visitors like myself. Even after we took my dad back home for his last few months I kept in touch with Ora Lee and ordered her two Avon lipsticks and replaced her old plastic bag where she kept other makeup items with a real cosmetic bag. She was grateful and would always ask how my dad and mom were doing. “ I think about your Daddy and Mommy all the time since I have that picture you took of all of us here (in the hallway).” Once during the early days of the pandemic she mentioned how she looked forward to seeing her son and the delicious enchilada plate he would always bring her. Not long after as I ordered to go plates for my parents I ordered one for her. She was So Delighted and loved it. Early in 2022 my very good friend was brought to Kaulbach and it was a pleasure to see her once again. I will always remember her warm and deeply caring nature, an inspiration all the way through.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Oralee at morning side. She was such a funny n not to mention beautiful woman. She was such a joy to be around I will definitely miss her. She reminded me so much of my grandma. I will never forget you Oralee especially your favorite food to eat, grilled ham n chz with fries n don't forget the tomatoes and onions. Forever in my heart. ❤️❤️❤️💔💔💔. My husband Jerry would make her food. We miss her so very much.

*Mrs. Oralee, was one of a kind!
She and my mother Lydia were next door neighbors at Morningside Manor. She's moms best friend and partner in crime.
These two ladies were like sisters. They would have their little spats and then kiss and make up.
They were cute together just being girlfriends.
When we would go visit, most of the time Mrs. Oralee, mom and other neighbors would be outside their rooms chatting over the days events, then we would have hugs and kisses go full circle.
Our hearts are broken but we will remember the good times and the laughter shared.
We miss her!
Rest in peace Mrs Oralee and know that we'll see you again sweet neighbor. We love you!*

*We had many happy days at the ranch in Blanco She was a wonderful Avon sales lady always ready to talk and share her day. If Willie were here we would have definitely been at her service. She was a beautiful lady. With deepest sympathy.

“ Ora Lee was such a fun person in the group at Kaulbach that we served as members of the Assistance League of San Antonio. She always, I repeat, ALWAYS, has something to add. She had a quick smile and a quick, but kind, response. Not to be forgotten. Sissie Henges, ASLA member

“ Ora Lee was very active in all of the activities at Morningside Ministries. She came to the Bingo and birthday parties and was well known by the volunteers from the Assistance League San Antonio. She always asked how my husband was doing after his surgery. She met him when he pushed her wheelchair in the 1K run one year. We will dearly miss her. Alma Green

“ My mom lives at Morningside Manor. Ora Lee was the first person I met when I was looking at prospective apartments to move my mom into. I fell in love with her from the moment I met her. She was spirited, funny, and I sensed a bit of a troublemaker, but all in good fun. I would visit her everytime I would visit my mom. When it came time for me to leave she would always say, while waving her finger, “You stay out of trouble, I’ll see you next time”, to which I would reply, “I make no promises about staying out of trouble and I will definitely see you in a week”! Once she told me after looking at my name tag “Kathleen”, “I have a daughter name Kathryn, but she passed away recently. She came to see me often, I miss her”. Seeing as she always wore jewelry (Avon) and I make jewelry, I made her a couple of bracelets with charms of words of encouragement. She was so grateful. The first time I met her son Lloyd, she introduced him as her baby. I thought that was so sweet that here is this very tall man standing next to me and she is introducing him as her baby. I said, “Does baby have a name?” We had fun conversations and she new the scoop on everyone there at Morningside. She will be sorely missed and had a positive impact on me.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Mair family.
May God bless you all with peace & comfort during these difficult times.

*I'm one of Hollie's co-workers & I feel like I knew Grandma Mair from all the fun stories Hollie shared about her.
Hold onto all those wonderful & funny memories as the days, weeks, months pass. Thinking of you all & sending love & positive thoughts!*

“ I first met Ora Lee in August 2021 as an OASIS volunteer. Almost every week since then, I would visit her and spend an hour enjoying her company and listening to her recount the many stories of her life, her family, and events at Morningside. Her sharp wit and sometimes irreverent commentary, coupled with her charming and gracious personality, provided many hours of unforgettable pleasure. Every other week I would bring her a small bouquet of flowers and, if I didn't, she was quick to chastise me for my forgetfulness. She let me into her life, regaling me with stories of her being an only child (I would tell her she was a spoiled little princess) and how she met and married the love of her life and whose large family adopted her as one of their own. I heard about the consumption of “Cokes” around the water tanks, party nights at the Hilltop and Flores Country Store, and, of course, her career as a successful Avon sales rep. She was a beautiful person, and I will miss her. May she rest in peace.
