

Oralia Trevino Carrillo

March 13, 1931 - November 10, 2014

Oralia Lita, 83, Catholic, passed away surrounded by family. She learned the virtues of charity and patient endurance by her mother, Esperanza, and father, Encarnacion. Survived by her sisters Eva, Luisa, Ofelia, Nora; 11 children Xavier and wife Tori, Roger and wife Beth, Hector and wife Karen, Rey and wife Abby, Cesar, Hilda and husband Kenny, Oralia, Jossh, Chris, Irma and husband David, and Ben and wife Valerie; and her 23 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. She accepted her fate with grace and humility. Mom is a living example of what it means to be charitable and caring for others. It is very special to have known and felt her sincerity and joy, that regardless of our failings or accomplishments in life, we can always count on Mom to be our rock and support. Her last words, forever etched in our soul were:

"Remember, always, that I love you very much."
