A Message from Her Eldest Son (Eddy):

Mom very much enjoyed dancing and music. She loved spending time with her family and rejoicing life. She was always outgoing and ready to venture off on any trip at the drop of a hat. We had several fond memories together, such as attending rock concerts and trying new restaurants. She loved to cook and made sure no one was ever hungry when they were at her house. One of Mom’s most endearing characteristics was her unconditional love and willingness to forgive and reunite despite differences. Family was most important to her. It brings me much peace knowing she will join the one and only love of her life, Husband that she missed so much, Chacho. Reunited once again; dancing and carrying on as they knew how. Our hearts are comforted knowing they are both smiling at each other, in each other's arms for all eternity.

You were loved by your entire family and many friends. We love you to the moon and back one trillion times. Goodbye Mom, a mother's love lives forever. 'til we are all together again...

“ Grama, I am blessed to have had the relationship I had with you. We talked, we picked on each other, and we laughed alot. We fought and got over it because we were bestfriends. You were so much more than my grama. I am so happy I have many memories, pictures and videos of us. I Know your prayers got me through all the rough times in my life, thank you for that. I am so happy you met and loved my children, now they know where I came from. I hope you see now you were never in my way, you were never a burden or a bother to me. I made a promise to grampa that I would take care of you and I fulfilled my promise the best I could. I am sorry I moved out and began my career and family. I hope you understood. I didn't mean to leave you alone and I sorry for that. The last 9 years without grampa were hard on all of us especially you. I watched your heartbreak a little everyday, I hope I was able to bring you happiness and joy to ease the pain. Thank you for everything you taught me. Thank you for giving me a hard time and tough love and making me who I am. No more pain, no more tears, no more sleeping alone and no more sadness. You can rest. I love you so so much. I have always and will always love you. I'll miss you "Mean old lady". Please visit in my dreams. Kiss grampa for me. Bye grama, I'll see you later.
