“ To the Cortez and Hernandez family, our deepest sympathy for the loss of Ora. She was such a beautiful woman of Faith. My memories of her were when we were kids growing up in the same neighborhood in Fostoria, OH. The Cortez and Diaz kids running around. We played outside till after dark and our parents yelled for us to come in. I miss those days playing tag, hide and seek and just having fun together at each other’s homes while our parents sat around telling chismes. The last time I spent time with her was about 10 years ago which seems like yesterday. While we sat and told chismes and laughed so much. I can still see her beautiful smile. Now she is lighting up heaven with that same smile. I love you mucho mucho mucho Ora until we meet again. ❤️
